

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D. C.
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

24 JUN 1976

Dr. Donald F. Chamberlain
[REDACTED]

Dear Don:

As you reach the end of your active career of Government service, I want to join your friends and colleagues in wishing you continued success and satisfaction in your retirement.

You have served this Agency with distinction in a number of sensitive positions, including Director of the Office of Scientific Intelligence and Inspector General. You also served the Intelligence Community, particularly during the many years you were Chairman of the Joint Atomic Energy Intelligence Committee. The leadership qualities you have displayed, combined with your impeccable integrity and superior judgment, have been of great importance to this organization during these recent years of change and concern. The success with which you have met a variety of complex challenges during twenty-one years of service with this Agency should be a source of lasting pride and satisfaction to you.

May I extend to you, personally and officially, my sincere appreciation for the important work you have done and my warmest hopes that you will find full enjoyment in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush

George Bush
Director
